

i deserve 2 b alone

Tai Verdes

Wish we could stay eighteen
Get a little too high, stay in bed and daydream
I wish I could fix things
If I took it all back, would you come over?

Take me to your studio apartment
Kissing in the dark
Staying with my roommates for fun

But I knew your good grace
And showed my two faces
I deserve to end up alone

Don't want you to take me back
Don't want you to call my phone
You deserve to be alone, I deserve to be alone

Wasted too much of your time
Time that you'll never get back
You deserve to be alone, I deserve to be alone

My heart's got a dead leg
Don't know my blood cells blue or my blood cells red
It's just a better way to save a memory
That's halfway out of my head

I think the spark is dead
I think your bruise has scarred
I never wanna be back with you fighting in the car
So hard the alarm goes off

Did mama call?
She said I'm addicted to bullshit
That I didn't even mess you enough up on our relationship
Just gave me two slaps on the wrist

You got the stick that's shorter
I hope you never lose your best friend
That's just me though, maybe you don't Need to keep my two cents

Don't want you to take me back
Don't want you to call my phone
You deserve to be alone, I deserve to be alone

Wasted too much of your time
Time that you'll never get back
You deserve to be alone, I deserve to be alone

You deserve to be alone, I deserve to be alone
You deserve to be alone, I deserve to be alone

Was it all a bad dream?
But we jog on and now you're drinking caffeine
I pin your new address
The good parts are the only thing I can't

Don't want you to take me back
Don't want you to call my phone
You deserve to be alone, I deserve to be alone

Wasted too much of your time
Time that you'll never get back
You deserve to be alone, I deserve to be alone

(My heart's got a dead leg
Don't know my blood cells blue or my blood cells red)
You deserve to be alone, I deserve to be alone
(My heart's got a dead leg
Don't know my blood cells blue or my blood cells red)
You deserve to be alone, I deserve to be alone
Gotta be alone
