

Sunset

Tai Verdes

(Just let em know
Just let em know
Yeah
Just let em know)

I wish I could just walk on the sunset
Instead of being down bad on my bed
I think I'm going batshit and braindead
Up inside my head

I'm stuck up in a different dimension
Throwin' out opinions and two cents
When I can't even tie up the loose ends
Up inside my head

This shit right here done cemented it (cemented it)
Little English element I benedict (I benedict)
Been up on my Bojack horse uh, I been a dick
Let me complile my rhetoric, yuh
Head just be spinnin' when I sit up
No equilibrium I be fucked up
Memory half corrupt, no backup
My frontal lobe is openin' up, MIDI waves
I'm a esophagus
Sitting in the back of the bus like what

Smokin' with the ghost riders
Clinically insane when this shit light up
Red up in your eye, but you got no buzz
Knocked unconscious
Livin' concussed

Why oh why
Can't I just see eye to eye
With my third eye in the sky
Just starin' me til I cry

I wish I could just walk on the sunset
Instead of being down bad on my bed
I think I'm going batshit and braindead
Up inside my head

I'm stuck up in a different dimension
Throwin' out opinions and two cents
When I can't even tie up the loose ends
Up inside my head

Talk is cheap, talk is rich, talk is poor
Call me babe, say my name, call me yours
Lookin' back on all fours, on the porch, on the floor
Call me every night when I'm out on tour
You unsure
When it's black and white
What I do it for
The allure
When you know it's right
When you know it's pure

Can't afford losing you tonight
Hear it from the source
Runnin' around the world and I'm way off course
Only voice left in my head is a Porsche (skrrt)
And it's ridin round with the suicide doors up
Going 200 and it's rippin all of the floors up
Burnin' every fire then flipping all of the drawers up

Why oh why
Can't I just see eye to eye
With my third eye in the sky

I wish I could just walk on the sunset
Instead of being down bad on my bed
I think I'm going batshit and braindead
Up inside my head

I'm stuck up in a different dimension
Throwin' out opinions and two cents
When I can't even tie up the loose ends
Up inside my head

Up inside my head
Up inside my head

Up inside my head
Up inside my head

Up inside it
Up inside it
