Child

You want to run, but you're too afraid to leave You said you have faith, but not enough to believe

Back and forth, you go back and forth again It wears you down, and it ties your hands

No more running Search is over Your salvation Has brought you back to life

Child wipe your tears away Cause Jesus cares for you He knows you're hurting And all you're going through Won't you try just test your faith and see You'll walk the oceans and believe He's right there by your side Oh child

Out of place is where you find yourself Without a trace You send an S.O.S. for help

No more running Search is over Your salvation Has brought you back to life

Child wipe your tears away Cause Jesus Cares for you He knows you're hurting And all you're going through Won't you try just test your faith and see You'll walk the oceans and believe He's right there by your side Oh child

Wipe your tears away Cause Jesus Cares for you
