

Open Up

Taj Jackson

What is this I heard he broke up with you
Girl I always knew that he was a fool
You're hurting right now
But soon you will get over it
What you need is someone who will care for you
Show you there ain't much he wouldn't do
Someway, somehow he's gonna pay for what he did

It's very clear, he didn't know you're a good girl
That's why I'm here cause he didn't give you the whole world
He's not worth your tears, you just gave it too much credit
He don't know that he'll regret it

Girl...
Open up to me, you can have all my love
Just open up to me and if you'll promise me
You'll open up and learn how to trust again
I can do so much more than him
Open up and let me in

Yes he should of shown that he believed in you
Enough to never lie and tell you the truth
Girl he wasn't in love
You should of left him long ago
Who was there every time he made you cry
Gave you the answer to the question why
You didn't mess up, baby he's the one who lost control

It's very clear, he didn't know you're a good girl
That's why I'm here cause he didn't give you the whole world
He's not worth your tears, you just gave it too much credit
He don't know that he'll regret it

Girl...
Open up to me, you can have all my love
Just open up to me and if you'll promise me
You'll open up and learn how to trust again
I can do so much more than him
Open up and let me in

(Here I am) baby to give you all of me
(Understand) cause you deserve it baby
(Oh) and know this time you're the one to have love
You can have it all (you can have it all)
You just gotta open up (girl just open up)
Open up yeah, open up...

Girl you gotta open up
Open up to me (to me), you can have all my love
Just open up to me and if you'll promise me
You'll open up (just open up girl)
And learn how to trust again (learn how to trust again)
I can do so much more than him (do so much more)
Open up and let me in

Open up to me, you can have all my love
Just open up to me and if you'll promise me

You'll open up (open up)
And learn how to trust again (learn how to trust again)
I can do so much more than him (oh yeah)
Open up and let me in
Open up to me...
