Don't forget the smell, You don't turn around.

Even when you are fed up,

You still give a fake smile. What are you doing?!

Pillow talk time slow motion.

Just realize that our connection is out of range.

But I won't stop. Suffering. Day and night.

I love you as much as you want to kill.

Evil, pretend to be interested, more frightening than the gangs.

Why aren't you dating me? Tell me why?

I'm too noisy? You only want to feel good aren't you?

Because it's the happiest when you are being chased after?

Though we won't meet, you'll be next to me, everyday.

Being loved in my dreams, though it won't come true.

I'm sorry, but I'm jealous and irritated.

Lighting up the cigarettes. You hate this, aren't you?

Being emotional, there is no way back.

What the fuck! Are you fooling me!?

My tears are flooding, you knew that.

Won't be touched, even for a little bit.

Distance between us, there's nothing I can do, it never ends.

"Okay, like ninja apple sauce. Little Wife, cares for me"

I want to disappear, cuz I'll never be anyone's first priority.

Just make you feel good and ended.

I made this happened at the first place, this is my fault.

Don't forget the smell, You don't turn around.

Even when you are fed up,

You still give a fake smile. What are you doing?!

Pillow talk time slow motion.

Just realize that our connection is out of range.

But I won't stop. Suffering. Day and night.

I love you as much as you want to kill.
