The world is packed with trash.
"Wish that I were born with a handsome or beautiful face."
At this moment, grudge can't change anything.
Misery that only you can experience!
Escape through alcohol? I've had enough~!
Live like a loser, I never wanted to be one of them.
These feelings won't end until your life has come to its end.
Love yourself like you're falling in love with yourself!

Though I'm trying way harder than anyone else.
Though I push myself to the limit for still breathing.
Him and her are flirting with each other.
And guys come to insult and laugh at me. I feel sick.
"In comparison, I've done NOTHING."
Posting tweets "It's impossible" and a bunch of complaints. Moaning.
I'm fine. It's comfortable to stay alone! ...
But I still want a lover, money and friends~!
Fucking communication disability.
My crush never paid attention to me.
Because I'm jealous, "Why can't you go and die?". Envy.
Failed to do what I wanted to do. Here comes those fat.
I can do nothing... Rage on everyone. Oh boi... My illness is severe.
I loved you. While you loved my body only. Broke up. Yeah, I'm done! ^^

Don't want to be compared. Makeup? Too troublesome.
My heart's pitch Black. Yeah! Friendship, full of lies.
I know it does no good to me. But, I'm really scared.
Corrupted, during my way to an adult.

Love yourself like you're falling in love with yourself!

But everything you do is adorable.
Give a try! You'll meet someone! Someone new.
Someone who has something in common with you.
Share your illness, heal each other. "Life sucks."
