Just disappear and vanish.
Laugh or cry? Doesn't matter.
Live, with those mysterious and unknown contradictions.
Until you can't feel anything anymore.

Just give up yourself.
Capture "lies", "worries" and "self" in your eyes.
Wealth and lust, they change people.
Don't want to think anymore, goodbye.
Forget about time, just want to say goodbye now.
People, they all come from the same kind.
But why are they trying to transcend others.
"Shut up!" I always scream in my heart.
I'm fed up with myself being unimportant.

That day, you said "We can meet".
Then you had a crush on someone, we never met that night.
At that point, I am the whole army.
There ain't any hope and support in my heart, they are in my phone.
The great man, depressed, resentful?
Is it "erotic" that saves the world?
Teach me the meaning of die.
Even if the clock turns back, I was just born without any reason,
Being picked up, and naturally collapsed.
"I really understand your true feelings." Sob.
"Yet, can't find my place to be."

There's no meaning searching for it, isn't it?
The world is always filled with injustice. Please make everyone happy.

Let's live at our own pace.
Capture "Past", "wish" and "yourself" in your eyes.
Hatred and resentment, they change people.
Don't want to think anymore, goodbye.
Forget about time, just want to say goodbye now.

(I want you) Fed up and I don't give a damn about complaints or betrayal.
(I love you) Confused, but still living desperately, you are the best!
Easy-Peasy! Be greedier!
I think I am going to shut down myself.
Don't need to hurry,
It's not scary, let's cross together when the light turns red.

People, they all come from the same kind.
But why are they comparing values and character with others.
"Freedom is the best!" I always scream in my heart.
Unimportant, lonely, fighting forever.
