We'll never be in mutual love.
Won't gaze at you from a distance anymore.
It's enough if you feel touched by this reckless and burdening love.
Don't treat me gently like it's granted.
Don't let me fall into you even more.

Tho it's misery,
A love that will never come true.
Let me stay at your side, being taken advantage of.
As long as I can view the night sky with you,
I don't mind if we won't be in love.

Even though I hate you, I still love you.
Ah, stuck in the swamp.
I still believe in those days,
Which were all lies yet filled with love.

Everything seems collapsed,
I'm the only one who won't change.
Lost "love", I won't say

"Wanted to know everything about you."

No matter how you betrayed,

My heart won't change.

I'll never give up, I won't say

The last "goodbye".

We'll never be in mutual love.

Won't gaze at you from a distance anymore.

It's enough if you feel touched by this reckless and burdening love.

Don't treat me gently like it's granted.

Don't let me fall into you even more.

Tho it's misery,

A love that will never come true.

Let me stay at your side, being taken advantage of.

As long as I can view the night sky with you,

I don't mind if we won't be in love.

Tho it's misery,

A love that will never come true.

Let me stay at your side, being taken advantage of.

As long as I can view the night sky with you,

I don't mind if we won't be in love.
