Instead of tricking me with words, just love me with loyalty
The blue photo is dyed black
That's true, we both aren't in the wrong
But because of you, I fell, screamed, and got drunk often
You push me away easily, saying "My only one lady"
I don't want this experience again that everyone goes through
Even though you're a jerk, I love you

I closed off my room filled of my corrupted heart
One day you came in barefoot and made it clean
Even your smile is kind, so I believed your heart
I only got my eyes on you, oh I'm so simple-minded
Feelings change fast, you couldn't say "I'm starting to get bored"
Even if you told me, I'd be sad. We both would get scared and be cold
Recently, you don't initiate holding hands
I realize but I can't say, even though it's not going back to how it was

Instead of tricking me with words, just love me with loyalty
That's true, we both aren't in the wrong

But because of you, I fell, screamed, and got drunk often
You push me away easily, saying "My only one lady"
I don't want this experience again that everyone goes through
Even though you're a jerk, I love you

"I want to break up in a week"
I tell my friends but I can't to you
You change your phone, have sex, back and forth
Stupid, most people have a heart of a bitch
"There's no real love"
I think... and get yelled at during work
Other couples look shining
Being the heroine of tragedy is kind of fun
Crying all the time doesn't change anything
Am I starting over? From this point
It's too late though
Hmm but I can't decide
For some reason "I love you" you ask me out
"Don't come near me, you're annoying"
How many days until we break up?
Oh? I can't sleep tonight again!

Instead of tricking me with words, just love me with loyalty
That's true, we both aren't in the wrong
But because of you, I fell, screamed, and got drunk often
You push me away easily, saying "My only one lady"
