□□□ □□□ Do you love me?

The indecisive me no longer exist, All right.
Regards immediately after I gave up on myself.
Friends who stabbed me in the back.
Hate you shut up. Let me live in my own way.
Breakthrough fucked up, live with my bare self.
Anxiety through the whole year, everyday.
What is art? What is life?
Hate you shut up. Let me live in my own way.

Wants to sleep, school sucks.
Wants to lose weight, have a drunk party till late night.
Lonely and dim room,
The only thing which can calm me down.
All of you are liars, you just pretend.
These hands sucks, they can't change the reality.
Goodbye, so dark, I'm fed up.
If you aren't the chosen one, piss off.

"You have the freedom to decide" The true liar said.
Follow the rules made by those dumb people.
Things you can see once you die:
Absolute authority, the principal, red 'slimes' from his head.

I don't care about those scums.
Wants to run away while I'm suffering.
Fed up and not satisfied,
I want you to touch me, a little bit is already enough!

The indecisive me no longer exist, All right.
Regards immediately after I gave up on myself.
Friends who stabbed me in the back.

Hate you shut up. Let me live in my own way.
Breakthrough fucked up, live with my bare self.
Anxiety through the whole year, everyday.
What is art? What is life?
Hate you shut up. Let me live in my own way.

Troublesome! I don't need a bitch anymore.
Everyone are cute, live as I like!
Attract those gentlemen and handomes.
Concussion, like a sperm, prepared to emergence.
I think I'm about to die.
Dope, bounce everybody bounce, whatever.
I like how you who cares about everyone.
Split, without emotion. Do you love me?
