Take care of other's happiness.

True self? Ohh... Where is it?
Sick of those abusive comments.
It's fine, soon or later, you'll find your place to be.

Live in your own way, dieheart.
You are a hero, the only who can save yourself.
Optimistic? Pessimistic? Don't sweat it, fly.
If you want to die, be more rebellious.

Trifles that wasn't really important,
Putrefying my body which already lost motivation.
Although I really want to stay alone,
I'm too empty, want to be with someone.
Ignored by the crowd, daily routine.
They think that I'm idiotic and treat me like a toy.
Complain? That's useless.
But, maybe, I'm useless too!?
Well, We can't help, we are human!
No matter how perfect a person looks, he's cunning inside.
Eaten up with jealousy, weekend routine.
Masturbate again and again... High AF...
"Want to share my worries with someone, who understands me." "Suffocating, want to die..."
Young soul pursuing "individuality".
"Do whatever you want."

Really want to meet the chosen one;
Stand out from the crowd;
Lose 10kg in a day;
And gain money through breathing.

After all, a dream is a dream.
Headaches won't end unless you take actions.
Motivation will pop up after you start.
Those you hate were gone!

Live in your own way, dieheart.
You are a hero, the only who can save yourself.
Optimistic? Pessimistic? Don't sweat it, fly.
If you want to die, be more rebellious.

The one I used to be, he's in heaven.
Somehow being sick of my hobbies.
Begging for what I don't have. Endless.
I have the same feeling. Let's walk through it, step by step.
