

Regrets

Take Care

And like I don't really have
Any proper, like, regrets
In my life
Because everything that I've done
Has, you know, led up to me
You know, getting to know her
And getting to be, like, kinda close with her
And it's just been amazing
And I wouldn't want it to happen any other way

I think this past, past while
Has just felt like I've been, like I've been in a dream
You know?
