

You're Perfect

Take Care

My list of regrets
Gets longer every day
All the chances I never took
All the things I couldn't say

I can't concentrate
On anything but you
I might as well say it
What else can I do

I've ruined everything
Just like I always do
I've ruined everything
I had with you

I wish you felt
The way I do
It's crazy to me
How much I need you

It'll never get better
Than that night
I should've kissed you
When the moment was just right

But I didn't
No I didn't
I didn't

Even though I should have
And every fiber of my being told me to do it but I couldn't
I should have
Cause I'll never get that chance again
Cause you're slipping away from me
Slipping away
Before my eyes
Before my eyes
Am I driving you away
Is it all my fault
Yeah, it's all my fault
It's my fault
It's my fault
I should've said
I should've said something sooner
I don't know why I didn't
But I should have told you sooner
I should have held your hand a little bit tighter
I should've
I should've
I should've known better
Than to fall for a girl
That's out of my league
You're a league of your own
You're in a league of your own
'Cause you're perfect
And I should've told you sooner

'Cause maybe it would've gone
Just a little bit better
And I wouldn't be here
So alone
I wouldn't be here
Singing this song
I'd be with you
I'd be with you
