

Amazing

Take That

Nobody knows if I told you you'd laugh out loud
If you heard her voice calling your name you'd never be the same

Nothing was new and nowhere was safe and sound
And then she arrived, oh just in time to save this heart of mine

Oh, I'd waited all my life

All I know is

Nobody knows it feels so amazing
And nobody else got my story to tell
My head's in the clouds I'm no longer chasing
And nobody knows that it feels so amazing

Maybe she knows, and maybe she'll soon be mine
In a perfect world, you know that this girl would be right here tonight
Weighing heavy on my mind

All I know is

Nobody knows it feels so amazing
And nobody else got my story to tell
My head's in the clouds I'm no longer chasing
And nobody knows that it feels so amazing
And nobody knows that it feels so amazing

Maybe my heart and my head are colliding
Or maybe it's more than I dare to believe
Don't ever let me forget what I'm feeling
Or wake up to find that it's all just a dream

All I know is

Nobody knows it feels so amazing
And nobody else got my story to tell
My head's in the clouds that I'm no longer chasing
And nobody knows that it feels so amazing
And nobody knows that it feels so amazing
