Thinking about that LaFerrari, bout to go and find one

Had a dream about a Sky-Dweller, then I woke up and went and bought one

The feelin' ain't the same, can't explain if you ain't got one

When it's wrapped around your wrist, I can't explain it

Some people let the money change 'em (Change)

And I'd still rather be rich than be famous

I seen it with my own eyes (Eyes)

My brother changed up on me for dead guys

Can't look 'em in the face cause he got red eyes (Red)

Far from I know, he a demon

When I found out he was scheming

Lookin' at that footage gave me the red eyes (Could've cried)

I couldn't believe it, it's all good

It show down for me (Down)
