

Bad Seed

Takida

Open your eyes,
Why can't you do this sober?
Have to realize,
You must fight this sober

How do you find your reasons why?
What do you get by?
Each day planting bad seeds in the crowd
How do you feel when you cannot cry?
The bottle's empty, and the rage will no longer hide
Mmmhm... You must do this!

Your soul is on fire,
Will it burn before it's over?
Ease your desire,
You must fight this sober

How do you find your reasons why?
What do you get by?
Each day planting bad seeds in the crowd
How do you feel when you cannot cry?
The bottle's empty, and the rage will no longer hide
Oh no

You must fight this sober

How do you find your reasons why?
What do you get by?
Each day planting bad seeds in the crowd
How do you feel when you cannot cry?
The bottle's empty, and the rage will no longer hide
