

Fading into Life

Takida

I didn't give up
You made me reconsider
I will not give up
I'm taking it day by day
Energy's rising, I feel it
The strength beating in my heart
As long as you're with me, I
Keep aiming for the stars

When I got your letter
I couldn't believe my teary eyes
It said that you're lonely like I am now
And you wanted me

I am fading
I wanna be a part of your life
I am fading
Into the light
I am fading
Your spirit keeping me high
I am fading
Into life
Into life

You are the one and only
With your suave enchanted charms
And you know if you need me
You just have to reach for my arms

Now I call you my wife
Remember when I took you down the hall
We've got a bond without strife
Feel us now and take me

I am fading
I'm now a part of your life
I am fading
Into the light
And I am fading
Your spirit keeping me high
I am fading
Into life

Our love with no hurt
A love with just love
My soul is breathing
I don't want to leave
Our love with no hurt
A love with just love
My soul is breathing
I don't want to leave
