

Goodbye

Takida

Your lips are teasing me, I'm knocked down
Remember that kiss to make it all worthwhile
She's spinning around my head
Watch her as she goes
Never admit a lie

I'll never find
I will never find my peace of mind
When will you say goodbye?
I hear you cry
The crying never ends
'Cause of all them lies
Is it goodbye?

It feels so wrong now in our bed
But at the same time I'm feeling it
She's spinning around my head
Watch her as she goes
Am I falling from life?
Will this make you wonder why
Will you want me still
Or will you be in denial?
Never admit a lie

I'll never find
I will never find my peace of mind
When will you say goodbye?
Hear you cry
The crying never ends
'Cause of all them lies
Is it goodbye?

Looking out of my window
While I sit on a lie
Looking out of my window
While I sit on a lie
Looking out of my window
While I sit on a lie

Looking out of my window
Watching my lover sit alone
While I sit on a lie
We can never be
Looking out of my window
Watching my lover sit alone
While I sit on a lie
We can never be
Looking out of my window
Watching my lover sit alone
While I sit on a lie
We can never be
While I sit on a lie
