

You're telling me
Today you told me that I am no one
It's hard to see
Cause yesterday
I was someone

I'll wait my heart
Even though you want me to depart
I'll wait for you my all

The pain is real
The pain is real for the long run
I will be here
Just don't show me up for what I've done

You feel so torn
When you're high getting drunk on your own
I'm here, don't go
I'm here, don't go
I'm yours

It's hard to breathe
It's hard to breathe when you're all gone
Make believe
It's make believe that it's said and done

I'll wait my heart
Even though you want me to depart
You feel so torn
When you're high getting drunk on your own
I'm here, don't go
I'm here, don't go
I'm yours
