

What About Me?

Takida

Thinking back to all the old times
It didn't take you long to feel right
I will never see the end light
Listen, I don't feel like giving
All I have for you and I
Sinking faster, thinking why
Taking all the wrong advice
How I should live my life

What about me?
I'll give you a fight
Gripping the fear that's in your eyes
What if it's me
That kept you alive?
I gave you all I had
And now you're nothing
But a stranger

Did you ever stop to think twice
Blinded by the smokescreen of life, life
Always followed, always in line
And you never took your time
To notice what the hell was wrong
Feel the hurt go on and on
See the fact you don't belong
I'm telling you this time

What about me?
I'll give you a fight
Gripping the fear that's in your eyes
But what if it's me?
That kept you alive?
I gave you all I had
And now you're nothing
But a stranger, oh

What about me?
I'll give you a fight
Gripping the fear that's in your eyes
Forget about me
Forget all the lies
You never stood a chance and I know why
What about me?
I'll give you a fight
Gripping the fear that's in your eyes
What about me?
What about me?
What about me?

What about me?
I'll give you a fight
Gripping the fear that's in your eyes
Forget about me
Forget all the lies
You never stood a chance and I know why
What about me?
I'll give you a fight

Gripping the fear that's in your eyes
And what if it's me?
That kept you alive?
I gave you all I had
And now you're nothing
But a stranger
