

The Stranger

Taking Back Sunday

Every time you bend
Living for the rent
Tighter every time going gets hard
Shouldn't have to be this hard

Don't you get lonely?
Like I know you get lonely?
Come on, act like you know me
Don't you get lonely?

Ritalin the meter, don't make much sense
I know a couple guys that's gonna handle it
The problem in the mirror, it don't take no shit
'Cause I know a couple guys that's going to handle it

'Cause don't you get lonely?
Like I know you get lonely?
Come on, act like you know me
Don't you get lonely?

There you go again
Leaning on the fence
Why's it always have to be this hard
Shouldn't have to be this god damned hard

'Cause don't you get lonely?
Like I know you get lonely?
Come on, act like you know me
Don't you get lonely?

Well, don't you treat me like a stranger
Well, don't you treat me like a stranger
Oh

Why would you give me that look?
Is what you've got in the trunk
It opens, my love is a diesel engine
Why would you give me that look?
Is what you've got in the trunk
It opens, my love is a diesel engine
Why would you give me that look?
Is what you've got in the trunk
It opens, my love is a diesel engine

Well, don't you treat me like a stranger
Well, don't you treat me like a stranger

Steve, it's your father
I'm calling to see if you had fun
