

(You Love) Like Nobody Loves Me

Tal Bachman

I'm a difficult man, I admit I'm not easy
At the drop of a tear I can turn right away
And all the heartaches I've seen one after another
Can make a man mean enough to feel afraid

And nobody cares, no one really knows me
And nobody shares the other side of me
But you love like nobody loves me

I was there all the time
Even I couldn't find me
So, how did you see, what made you believe?

Nobody cares, no one really knows me, yea, hey
Nobody shares the other side of me
But you love like nobody loves me

You delivered my heart
One beat at a time, after time
After time, after time

Yea, yea, yea, yea
And nobody cares, no one really knows me, oh, no, no, no
And nobody shares the other side of me
But you love like nobody loves me
Yes, you love like nobody loves me

So how did you see, what made you believe?
