

20 Reasons

Talia Mar

I could give you 20 reasons to stay
And not a single one would matter
You love the game, you need the chase
To get through the day
Well, you could give me any reason to participate
And not a single one would matter
I've been here before
So now see the door
When you need a change

And you think that all those bittersweet sounds
Make the world go round, boy
Mm, well you should by now
I don't play with silly boys
Think that all those bittersweet sounds
Make me fall to the ground, oh
No, no, no
You should know not a damn thing has changed

You want me to run around, run around you
Woah-oh-oh
I don't wanna play that game
Don't wanna get played
Well no, not anymore
You want me to run around, run around you
Woah-oh-oh
I don't wanna play that game
Don't wanna get played
Like when I loved you before

I could give you 20 reasons to leave
And not a single one would please you
You want what you want
Thinking about you and never what I need and so
I've got no reason to agree
'Cause I've given you hundreds for why you should leave and

All these bittersweet sounds
Know they make the world go 'round, oh
You should really know by
You should really know by now, boy
All these bittersweet sounds
Know they make the world go 'round, oh
You should really know by
You should really know by now
I'm not gonna

Run around, run around you
Woah-oh-oh
I don't wanna play that game
Don't wanna get played
Oh no, not anymore
You want me to run around, run around you
Woah-oh-oh
I don't wanna play that game
Don't wanna get played
Like when I loved you before

I don't wanna always feel like I have to run
And I guess that reason is the first one
Don't wanna always feel like I can't trust you
Suppose that's reason number two
And I don't wanna waste time with three to nineteen
Talking about the ways you disappoint me
Now I'm not a liar, but for all the times that
I faked and you couldn't see
And that's twenty

Run around, run around you
Woah-oh-oh
I don't wanna play that game
Don't wanna get played
Oh no, not anymore
Run around, run around you
Woah-oh-oh
I don't wanna play that game
Like when I loved you before
