

Bored

Talia Mar

Here we go again, gave you a second chance
You're on your last life, I fooled myself twice
Maybe you love the sound of your stupid voice
Hint dropping all night, I'm losing my mind

Ooh, can't believe I have to tell you
Boy, you best believe I'm bored

Better step it up, I'm bored 'cause I need a little more
And you're losing my attention, now I'm not so sure
If you wanna love me, gotta give me what I need
Boy, you best believe I'm bored

Have I gone too far? maybe I've been too harsh
We're in a nice place, you've got a nice face
But who am I kidding, should've listened to my friends
I'm half asleep before your story ends

Ooh, can't believe I have to tell you
Boy, you best believe I'm bored

Better step it up, I'm bored cus I need a little more
And you're losing my attention, now I'm not so sure
If you wanna love me, gotta give me what I need
Boy, you best believe I'm bored
Better step it up, I'm bored 'cause I need a little more
And your losing my attention, now I'm not so sure
If you wanna love me, better give me what I need
Boy, you best believe I'm bored

You're losing my attention
No feeling, there's notension
Somebody call me please, emergency, an intervention
Sorry I have to go, here's someone's number though
Let's just pretend that we're friends, nothing more, I'm bored

Boy, better step it up, I'm bored cus I need a little more
And your losing my attention, now I'm not so sure
If you wanna love me, gotta give me what I need
Boy, you best believe I'm bored
