

Nat Turner

Talib Kweli

And he get's excited-

(Dr. Dre)

No matter how hard you try to be, here's what they think about you

(Paul Congemi)

You and your people, you talk about reparations. The reparations that you talk about, your people already got your reparations. Your reparations came in the form of a man named Barack Obama

My advice to you, my advice to you, if you don't like it here in America, planes leave every hour. Go back to Africa, Go back to Africa. Go Back!

You and your people...

This feels like we're going back to the future

I'm on my way now

History repeating itself like every two months

Man this shit is getting played out

I wish Kanye West woulda met Credo Mutwa (A mo tsenye verstaan)

Eish, nkare kea mona ka Maybach ko Kuruman (You ain't got the answers, Sway)

That would be too much

Ana re lea nkutlwa, eintlek, dintshang?

The lost ones are gone, I hope we win some

Dumb as fuck even though you seem smart

Go back to Africa is actually not an insult (Nah)

That would be a dream come true

The trip ain't cheap. The seats, plus food

The animals are wild and the scenes are cool

And plus you get to dance like you see us do

Man, we live a cool ass life

For instance, I was in the hood last night

Watch out, pull up in a cool ass ride

Chill, everything good, that's right (That's right)

'Cause nobody gon' take my life here (Nah)

'Specially for 'caine and some light gear

Kwe', you ever wanna make that move?

Just send me a little text, my nigga, and I'll be right there

Skrrrrr!

I'ma scoop you up in a Beam

You could buy a crib in Cape Town for the sea (Nice)

Or we could set you up in Durban

Summer all year the weather is not a burden (Nice)

You choose. It's a win win

Yeah, yeah. However the cookie crumble

On that note, I would like to remind every single one'a y'all

That Africa is not a jungle

Bitch!

Watch how we do it independent

Focused on African Independence

In any competition bro we winnin'

You ain't felt this free in a minute

Illegally a slave in prison

Give your money to decide about amendments

Nat Turner with the burner or business

Let's get free for a livin'

We will never get freedom from imitating oppressors

Divide and conquer keep us from innovating together

We sick of these aggressors, insinuating their better

The algorithm is racist, discrimination is meta
We do it for the culture and call it a Sankofa
They venomous. Labelled a snake, can't cover middle passage
Jump on the boat when they came over
Colonial hangover. Slave owner, your reign over
We talkin' and spittin' in slang-time
We walk in a rhythm, we bang drums
They used to cut off our feet so we can't run
Anger stranger than fruit of the tree that we swang from
The darker the berry the sweeter the juice
You don't need to believe when you lead with the truth
They cite you as proof when they need to recruit
You bein' a puppet. They speakin' thru you
We came a long way from Adidas to light Yeezus
Can't stain the right sneakers to pray to a white Jesus
Michelangelo was commissioned by white leaders
To paint him with white features
Behavin' just like creatures
They some motherfuckin' monsters
The Koch Brothers just as nazi as Tucker Carlson
We never ignorant and we gettin' these goals accomplished
You never gotta light the weed to be conscious
Sway handled the efforts and responses [?]
Niggas ain't free cause they think we need sponsors
Too many young rappers in the courtroom
Notice how they try to keep us in boxes
Africa unite, they can't stop us
Reparations now. And hands off asylum
Blackstar we poppin' in Ghana
Runnin' in thru the plaza
Yellin' out "?"

Y'know it's hard to be black in a world controlled by white folks
Du Bois said, they always had the double-consciousness
You're tryna be black, meanwhile you got a white ghost hovering over your head that says, "if you don't do this, you'll get killed. If you don't do this, you won't get no money. If you don't do this, nobody will think you're beautiful. If you don't do this nobody will think you're smart."
That's the ghost. You're trying to be black but the ghost is telling you to be a ghost
We hope you won't slip
