

Behind the River

Talisco

I'll tell you my sins
When you get to the river
You must find a man

No one can hide
There's a boat in the mist
With a ferryman

No one can hide
When you get to the river
With the ferryman

Oh, brace yourself, hold your breath
Blow your mind
Hold you
It's not the worst that you'll see
Blow your mind
Hold yourself

I see the kiss from his hand
I see the walk through the land
So ends this day

With the blessing he'll go
Hold his hand to the land
I won't forget, I swear

Oh, brace yourself, hold your breath
Blow your mind
Hold you
It's not the worst that you'll see
Blow your mind
Hold yourself

Oh, brace yourself, hold your breath
Blow your mind
Hold you

I will wait here
