

A way, a way out
I'll drop you here
A way, a way out
I'll drop you here

I feel the freedom rising in me
I've left a part of me
Yes, I feel free

It was a fight for me
I drifted alone
But I've overcome
All my demons

A way, a way out
I'll drop you here
A way, a way out
I'll drop you here

Your head in the clouds
I wanna hear my voice, I gotta find my place
Just wanna feel good
I wrote under my skin, no saints
My desires, my dreams, getting me high

A way, a way out
I'll drop you here
A way, a way out
I'll drop you here

There's no worries, no worries
