

So Old

Talisco

Days seem so cold
The man will soon be old
He's the one who sees the time
The time spent so sublime

Oh, no he can't give no more
Oh, no he can't give no more

I will forgive your wrongs, they'll fade in time
I will forgive your wrongs, they'll fade in time
You should know, I will miss you
You should know, I will miss you

Days pass by in his eyes
He remembers the young man who smiled
Now, he is the one who sees the time
The time spent over the years

Oh, no he can't give no more
Oh, no he can't give no more

I will forgive your wrongs, they'll fade in time
I will forgive your wrongs, they'll fade in time
You should know, I will miss you
You should know, I will miss you
