

Someone

Talisco

Someone to love, to hold me
I'm alone, I'm alone, it's alright
Fooling the devil for a night
I'm alone, I'm alone, it's alright

Leaving the dust behind me
I'm alone, I'm alone, it's alright
Now I get stuck, stuck in the dirt
I stole it back from your tomb

I wish that I could say no
I wish that you were here
Drinking up to sunset
Downing them alone

Drinking up to sunset
Downing them alone
