

Sunny Boy

Talisco

I can see in your hands, boy
I see a sunny soul
Yeah a sunny soul, yep
Another round, boy
Yeah another round, boy

I can see in your hands, boy
I'm waiting for your soul
Waiting for your sunny soul
Another round, boy
Yeah another round, boy

The devil and the sun
Have gone away for now
The city seems so lonely
So lonely now
So lonely now
So lonely now, now

The devil and the sun
Have gone away for now
They're waiting for a round
For another round
Another round
Another round, round

You howl and howl and stare at the moon
You see the light, you can see the hand
Today someone you love's gone away
The stranger is gone and the sunny boy stays
The night, you howl, you stare at the moon
You see the light, you can see the hand
All colours are true, there's a light, there's a way
Today the strangers are gone away

The stranger and the dark
In the shadow's town
Are waiting for a round
For another round
Another round
Another round, round

I can see in your hands, boy
I see a sunny soul
Yeah a sunny soul, yep
Another round, boy
Yeah another round, boy

I can see in your hands, boy
I'm waiting for your soul
Waiting for your sunny soul
Another round, boy

You howl and howl and stare at the moon

The stranger is gone and the sunny boy stays

You can run for your life, boy
The stranger in the dark awaits
Run for your life, boy
