Thousand Suns

Talisco

In the magical illusion of my brain
I was flying
Gaze plunged on the beach

In the great sky tinted in pink
I saw them
Like a prayer for each one

Full of colors to my face
Colors to our faces
We were burning with the sun
We were smiling at the devil
We were dancing in the sea
Playing with the poison
I confess to my demons
We were smiling at the devil

Thousand suns
Making fire
Thousand hands

I can feel your whisper in my head
Mystic arrow
I can call it magic

Full of colors to my face
Colors to our faces
We were burning with the sun
We were smiling at the devil
We were dancing in the sea
Playing with the poison
I confess to my demons
We were smiling at the devil

Full of colors to my face
Colors to our faces
We were burning with the sun
We were smiling at the devil
We were dancing in the sea
Playing with the poison
I confess to my demons
We were smiling at the devil

We were smiling at the devil
We were smiling at the devil
We were smiling at the devil
