

All I Want

Talisman

it's going round that you're leaving me, but I've tried everything to make you stay, I'm blinded by a fading memory, of hoping you'll be back again someday chorus:

I'd give up everything just to hold you once again, I'm praying for a reason to make you understand, and if I knew the answer, rest assured I'd let you in

All I Want it's plain to say, remember the yesterdays, take a chance on the dream,
All I Want it's in my eyes, believe in a miracle, somewhere in the night oh, I called your number, but you just let it ring, maybe it's because you're not alone tonight, it's getting harder as the days go bye, and this emptiness, is killing me inside all I'm asking now, is that you help me ease the pain, I need your love just to shelter me from the pouring rain, tell me everything is gonna be alright someday

All I Want it's plain to say,
remember the yesterdays, take a chance on the dream,
All I Want it's in my eyes,
believe in a miracle, somewhere in the night

Repeat chorus
