

Lightning Strikes

Talisman

Cold wind blowing outside but it's cold as steel in my heart ohh she's a hot blooded woman She wants to tear me apart

Chained up like a prisoner Something tells me I can't resist Finally she tried too hard and I couldn't take it anymore

I have taken, full control maybe it's just another lie When lightning strikes, i know! it will change my ways

Joker with a losing hand I play the game but i still can't win ohh ohh for a long long time She's got her hands around my heart

Repeat Chorus
no no no

Solo
