

Perfect World

Talking Heads

Well, I know what it is
But I don't know where it is, where it is Well, I know where it is
But I don't know what it looks like, what it looks like

Well, I know what it looks like
But I don't know where she comes from
Well, I know where she comes from
But I don't know what's her name

And she said
This is a perfect world
Riding on an incline
I'm staring in your face
You'll photograph mine

And I've been walking, talking
Believing the things that are true
And I've been finding the difference
Between right and wrong, bad and good

See me put things together
Put them back where they belong
Am I just like the others?
Have I always been singing the same song

She said
This is a perfect world
Riding on an incline
I'm staring in your face
You'll photograph mine

Somebody said that it happens all over the world
I do believe that it's true and the sun's coming up
And we're doing all the things that we should Doesn't everybody here believe in the things we do?

And she said
Riding on an incline
I'm staring in your face
You'll photograph mine

It's a strange situation, what's wrong with you?
Baby, baby, baby
What you doing in my house?
And it's all true there's nothing wrong with you

And I said
This is a perfect world
Riding on an incline
I'm staring in your face
You'll photograph mine
