

The Hard Reset

Tallah

You're such a precious creature
Too bad the world can't see it

Yikes!

Such a precious creature the world can't ever see
They'll never know the truth about the hopelessness
The tears that fuel the lies that keep your coals hot
O' my god!
If you don't wanna' sit through another lecture, get out!
They gave you a bite
I stole the bark
Don't want you yapping too loud while I'm tryna' snooze

And that's just the start of things
Yeah, it's a start
It keeps the dogs at bay

How long 'til we are something grand?
Know once you cross that threshold
You can't go back

This is my redemption
I'll have to judge who's iniquitous, and who's the sun
It's up to me to decide the fate of your kind
Nevertheless, you'll wanna' see it how I covered your mess!
You were obsessed with gifts!
You ruled the floor with a fist!
I'll strip away your selfishness
And tune into your brain just like a satellite dish
Three or four tests 'til the chemicals set
And pull from your memory
Affection's a madness
It made you keep barking in sadness
Barking to ward off the drabness
Barking and barking to have this
Barking just to bark

And that's just the start of things
Yeah, it's a start
'Til someone tests that bite

How long 'til we are something grand?
Know once you cross that threshold
You can't go back

Why would you ever want to anyway?

Because I thought it all out this time
That's why I've got my back to the sidewalk
Walk to the beat of a ratta-tat-tat
And there's C4 strapped to my golf-bag
It's an attack!
And you'll all be stumped
Dumped in a landfill when the gunk slips off
Jumps out with a bow! bow! bow!
Bring 'em out!

Bring 'em out!
Finna be outta control
You should know
I officially put a tally on the whole damned group
It's true!
You don't even know what I'm doing
Infuse you, confuse you, transfuse you
With anything in the perimeter
Assimilate your brains into a dinner plate
Wait, wait!
'Cause this is only the first date
The great scientist that I aim to be don't need to be playing it safe

At what point is that not your problem?
This is everything you yearn to be
At what point is that not your problem?
This is everything you yearn to be

I did this to hurt you
I took it upon myself to make a reset
A reset
A reset to wipe clean all you believe
