Time Machine

Tally Hall

Look
Oh look at what you've done now to me
Dead tired and ornery
I'm leaving today today

Thinking of the way I used to spend the time
I can see that I have overpaid
Past is passed and rather than regret the old
I can live it back the other way

Just look
Oh look at what you've done now to me
Free floating temporally
I'm leaving today today

I avoid the messiness of misery
Playing in dimension number four
I can get away to any time I like
Space-time's any time and many more

Live the dream with a time machine
You've been waiting forever
But you can make ever wait for you
Do what you want to do

Live the dream with a time machine
You've been waiting forever
You'll have time enough to spend some time alone

Wait
I await for all eternity
With standing modernity
Is where we must stay today

Now I know the nature of no urgency
Now I know why now is never gone
Fleeting in this mode of making memories
Keeping up this pace of keeping on

Live the dream in a time machine
You've been waiting forever
But you can make ever wait for you
Do what you want to do

Live the dream in a time machine
You've been waiting forever

You'll have time enough to spend some time alone
All alone
Time alone

Live the dream with a time machine
You've been waiting forever

Live the dream with a time machine
You've been waiting forever

Live the dream with a time machine
You've been waiting forever

Live the dream with a time machine

Live the dream with a time machine
You've been waiting forever

Live the dream with a time machine
