

You

Tally Hall

It's never fair to say I never care about
Anything 'cause I always care about you

It doesn't seem like there's anything happening
Nothing ever seems happening without you

It never seems like I'm all alone when now
Everywhere that I search about is for you

There's always something that's worth believing in
Keep uncovering more at the thought it's for you

In the warm sun
Past the winter
Here and ever here forever

In the motion
Frozen quiet
Still it's spoken heart unbroken

Clouds before us
Unknown waters
Greater spaces hold no hiding

Far and near to
Change or constant
I'll still wait and do it all for
You
