

I confine your heart in this boiling space
I could show you life but I choose to wait
Shackled with your beast apart
Fear new starts
Alone, we don't go down

I'm withered and find your state unstable
I'm taking what's mine to come
Your thought is an ancient one

Escariot
Deserter
Usurper lover
Serpent
Now we find warring ground

I'm shrieked apart in your wasting mouth
Run away, run away, forsake me
A tear won't fall in our final sound
Run away, run away, and save me now
Fires breath
I'm failing now
All your teachings weigh me down

Escariot
Deserter
Usurper lover
Serpent
Now we find warring ground

Escariot
Deserter
Usurper lover
Serpent
Now we find warring ground

Glory glory take me now
I'm sorry
Glory glory take me now
I'm sorry
