Talos

This ancient dark we tore through heaven
Just left us dancing in the sun
You lay out broken, bright, and faceless
With all we lost in the burning mountain smoke
I found our pieces offered havens
But I'm weaker now than I'd begun
A future bound by ghosts just caves in
With all we lost it, yet I was there when you were down

Side-winder, sun-divider
Come teach us higher love
Conceal it, hide away the bleed
When all those wars were ours
I've reached it, don't you feel it?
Some teach us higher love
Conceal it, why'd you want to bleed
When all those wars were ours?

Take over islands when we falter
I'm seeing you in times that teach us both 'bout loss
But if you knew how to keep me, I would wait here
With all we lost, yet I was there when you were down

Side-winder, sun-divider
Come teach us higher love
Conceal it, hide away the bleed
When all those wars were ours
I've reached it, don't you feel it?
Some teach us higher love
Conceal it, why'd you want to bleed
When all those wars were ours?
Side-winder, sun-divider
Come teach us higher love
Conceal it, hide away the bleed
When all those wars were ours
When all those wars were ours
