

How I Feel

Tamar Braxton

You're asking how, do I really feel
And I'm asking now, how is this real
Oh, love is a plan, that we can't control
All I can hope, that I'll fit the role

No one will ever know how I feel for you
Throw me a love plan
When you don't say the words
I'm just sitting silent knowing that actions speaks more than words
Wanna have that something, knowing it means nothing
Baby, you're just bluffing
This is how I feel

Your pretty laughs, I'm longing to hear
I'll wait around, 'til this is real
Oh you played a mime, but I can't feel
Oh that when we're alone, our hums are sealed

No one will ever know how I feel for you
Throw me a love plan
When you don't say the words
I'm just sitting silent knowing that actions speaks more than words
Wanna have that something, knowing it means nothing
Baby, you're just bluffing
This is how I feel

Give me hope and a prayer
Say you'll be there
I must feel
I know you need
Say you love me

When you don't say the words
I'm just sitting silent knowing that actions speaks more than words
Wanna have that something, knowing it means nothing
Baby, you're just bluffing
This is how I feel babe
