It Is Not Meant to Be

Tame Impala

I wanted her
I wanted her
But she doesn't like the life that I lead Doesn't like the life that I lead. Doesn't like sand stuck on her feet. or sitting around smoking weed, I must seem more like a friend in need.

And I boast that it is meant to be, but in all honesty, I don't have a hope in heel, I'm happy just to watch her move. And in all honesty, I don't have a hope in hell, I'm happy just to watch her move.

And she doesn't like the friends that I make, doesn't make friends for friendship's sake. she just gets bored sitting by the lake, her soul won't surface and her heart won't ache.

And I boast that it is meant to be, but in all honesty, I don't have a hope in hell, I'm happy just to watch her move.

And I thought they could cure his disease, but in all honesty, he didn't have a hope in hell, now we'll never see him move.
