

Hello God

Tamela Mann

Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello)
Hello, Hello
Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello)
Hello, Hello (God)

I feel You in the darkness of the night
And in the valley, You're right by my side
And though I think it strange, each time I run from pain
When that's the tool You use to make me right, so I say

Holy, Holy, Holy, Holy
Take your shoes off, this ground is Holy
So I say
Holy, Holy, Holy, Holy
Take your shoes off
Whatever comes my way

Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello)
(When I see a brand new day it's)
Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello, Hello God

See I'm falling, falling come to my rescue
Lord, I'm calling and I can't seem to get through (So rain down)
Father fill my soul (Come down)
'Cause the world's turned cold (Fall down)
On your knees and pray
Lord, we humble ourselves and say

Holy, Holy, Holy, Holy
Take your shoes off, this ground is Holy
So I say
Holy, Holy, Holy, Holy
Take your shoes off
So whatever comes my way it's

Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello)
(When I see a brand new day it's)
Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello, Hello God

I am back from the burning bush
I have heard the voice of I am (Yeah, yeah)
I am back from the burning bush (Ooh, ooh)
We gon' be like Moses and Aaron (Oh yeah)

Lord, we have turned from Your ways and it's like a cold winter for me
Our hearts have no beat
But if we call on Your name and we change we'll be Holy
So help us believe, believe

(Holy, Holy) Yeah, there is no one God like You
(Holy, Holy) Only You can pull us through (Holy, Holy) God You are our safe refuge
Take your shoes off, this ground is Holy

Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello)
Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello)
Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello)

Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello God (Hello), Hello, Hello God
