

Making Up

Tamela Mann

Every time we fight it feels like the end
Butterflies in my stomach and I don't,
Know if we're gonna come back from this
You keep bringin' up the past every chance that you get
What's it gonna take for you to forgive me
'Cause I don't wanna keep on livin' like this

'Cause you know exactly how to get under my skin
And I said some things that now I wish I never did
And it's like we're on two different sides of the ocean
And we both know we can't let it end like this

'Cause it's so easy to give up
But it's never worth losing us
Oh na na, we can let the sun go down
And it won't be long before we're making up
I don't wanna fight
And it doesn't matter who's right
Oh na na, we can let the sun go down
And it won't be long before we're making up

Here we go again with the same arguments
Every little thing is takin' me from 1 to 10
We're fussin', we're fightin' and I see no end
It's like we're not even friends
Oh I hate when we're like this

Wasting our time on the things we can't change
Feelings misunderstood is the one thing I hate, yeah
'Cause it's so hard to let my pride go
You're the only one that I can't hide from, ooh

'Cause you know exactly how to get under my skin
And I said some things that now I wish I never did
And it's like we're on two different sides of the ocean
And we both know we can't let it end like this

'Cause it's so easy to give up
But it's never worth losing us
Oh na na, we can let the sun go down
And it won't be long before we're making up
I don't wanna fight
And it doesn't matter who's right
Oh na na, we can let the sun go down
And it won't be long before we're making up

Let's just put our weapons down
I will let you when I'm waving my white flag
'Cause I just wanna work it out
I'll do anything to make it up to you

'Cause it's so easy to give up
But it's never worth losing us
Oh na na, we can let the sun go down
And it won't be long before we're making up
I don't wanna fight
And it doesn't matter who's right

Oh na na, we can let the sun go down
And it won't be long before we're making up
