

Bliss Is

Tami Chynn

[Verse 1:]

It's not often that I care about what I wear,
Or who cares to stare in my direction...
But when you can read I swear
I chose to stress to compliment your complexion
And I know, I know, I know that you're already somebody's heaven...
But I just can't help but realize your eyes always in my direction...

[Chorus:]

So, would you visit me in a dream...
By the sea water, memories...
Floating on the breeze... fantasies, would you visit me?
OOh! AAh! Every time I say your name I get this rush... (rush)
You don't have to say a word baby... just hush...
Waiting for the day to feel your tender touch... (touch)
Cause I can have you... I want you so much...
Every time I say your name I get this rush... (rush)
You don't have to say a word baby... just hush...
Waiting for the day to feel your tender touch... (touch)
Cause I can have you... I want you so much...

[Verse 2:]

So if you can understand my intentions...
And I tell you all my secret wishes...
Then will you return my affection...
When I gave you all my hidden kisses
And I hope that you can see it in my smile...
ALa La La La La...
ALa La La La La...
Yes I hope that you can see it in my smile...
OOOOh... This is what bliss is...

[Chorus:]

So, would you visit me in a dream...
By the sea water, memories...
Floating on the breeze... fantasies, would you visit me?
OOh! AAh! every time I say your name I get this rush... (rush)
You don't have to say a word baby... just hush...
Waiting for the day to feel your tender touch... (touch)
Cause I can have you... I want you so much...
Every time I say your name I get this rush... (rush)
You don't have to say a word baby... just hush...
Waiting for the day to feel your tender touch... (touch)
Cause I can have you... I want you so much...

[Bridge:]

It's not often that I throw my cards on the table for love...
(for love) for love (for love)...
It's not often that I throw my cards on the table for love...
For love, for love, for love... eh
Got mi ina ways weh mi caan explain
Got mi ina ways... I don't feel the same...
Hold mi ina ways so mi caan escape...
Take mi away...

[Repeat]

It's not often that I throw my cards on the table for love...
For love, for love, for love...
It's not often that I throw my cards on the table for love...
For love, for love, for love...
[Repeat]

Ooooh... yeahhhh... yeahhhh
