

For The First Time

Tammin Sursok

Sometimes, It's hard to see what's been there all along

Sometimes we're sure of everything, until we find out that we're all wrong

Now we're standing here, face to face,

Nothing feels the same

For the first time, I realize something I didn't see before.
For the first time, looking in your eyes, suddenly there's so much more, something we both feel inside for the first time.

How did we ever end up here? I don't know, but it feels so right .

The last thing, I ever expected, is happening it's you and I.
There's something real, I can't explain, and nothing feels the same.

For the first time, I realize, something I didn't see before.
For the first time, looking in your eyes, suddenly there's so much more.
Something we both feel inside for the first time.

I can't find the words,

For how I feel about you, just want to be around you now,

I never imagined,

That someone could make me feel the way you do.
For the first time, I realize, something I didn't see before,
For the first time, looking in your eyes, suddenly there's so much more.
Something we both feel inside, for the first time.

Oohhh

For the first time.
