I might do my thing, I might just might do my thing
Might take off this diamond ring and you bet not say nothing
Don't say shit to me
'Cause baby boy in a fucking minute you gone be history
Are you kidding me
'Cause real soon you gone see what them hoes 'bout
Hope you like living at them hoes house
I'm about to throw all your clothes out
I'm about to throw all your clothes out (turn the lights out)

You ain't the only one, who can turn your phone off

And you played with them groupies
And you played with my love
But no baby

You ain't the only one, who can turn your phone off
Baby I know how to press ignore, I won't be crying anymore
You ain't the only one, you ain't the only one who can be a show off
This body look good, out on the town, so many boys wanna be down
You ain't the only one

Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah
