

A Trip Through Space To Clear My Mind

TANERÉLLE

I've been in a low tide
I've been off the scene now you know
I've been needing your time
But I've been needing me even more
I can seek but won't find, find, find
The things in me that don't hide, hide, hide
If I lose all connection, direction
Then I lose me on all sides

And I don't wanna see myself just melt away in time
Cause I didn't wanna commit myself to brighter days so I, so I

Roll one up and think about it
Run myself a bath to sit and sink about it
Watch something to laugh and maybe sing about it
Love up on myself all night and dream about it

Roll one up and think about it
Run myself a bath to sit and sink about it
Watch something to laugh and maybe sing about it
Love up on myself all night and dream about it

I've been tryna love me
Learn myself by heart now you know
Trying not to judge me
Trying not to run from the growth
But growing can be lonely
That's the part they don't see
But I can't lose connection, direction
It's better that I chose me

And I don't wanna see myself just melt away in time
Cause I didn't wanna commit myself to brighter days so I, so I

Roll one up and think about it
Run myself a bath to sit and sink about it
Watch something to laugh and maybe sing about it
Love up on myself all night and dream about it

Roll one up and think about it
Run myself a bath to sit and sink about it
Watch something to laugh and maybe sing about it
Love up on myself all night and dream about it
