

I tell him go fast
I've gotta thing for speed
He tells me lean back
I let him take the lead
I know it won't last
But he is all I need
I write my name over his tongue
So It is all he speaks

I got a million fucking reasons I should leave him
But I don't
I got a million fucking reasons to stop dreaming
But I won't

So if you're looking
You will find me
Standing next to him
Kissing underneath the palm trees
Feigning for his sin
I don't care if it's not righteous
I don't give a damn
There's no other lovin' like this
God I love my man
Through space and through time
(And time, we'll keep going on & on & on)
Forever he's mine

I tell him love me
'Till I can take no more
He wants me happy
He never tells me no
I'll never know peace
But I just can't let go
I write my name over his brain
So it is all he knows

I got a million fucking reasons I should leave him
But I don't
And you could give a million more to make me see it
But I won't

So if you're looking
You will find me
Standing next to him
Kissing underneath the palm trees
Feigning for his sin
I don't care if it's not righteous
I don't give a damn
There's no other lovin' like this
God I love my man
Through space and through time
(And time, we'll keep going on & on & on)
Forever he's mine
