Astrophel and Stella

Tangerine Dream

What if we new beauties see, Will they not stir new affection? I will thinke they pictures be, (Image-like, of saints perfection) Poorely counterfeting thee.

But your reasons purest light Bids you leave such minds to be Who is it that this darke night

Well, in absence this will dy; Leaue to see, and leaue to wonder. Absence sure will helpe, if I Can learne how my selfe to sunder

But time will these thoughts remoue; Time doth work what no man know.

Time doth as the subject proue; With time still the affection groweth In the faithful turtle-doue.

Why, alas, and are you he? Be not yet those fancies changed? Deare, when you find change in me,

Well, in absence this will dy; Leaue to see, and leaue to wonder. Absence sure will helpe, if I Can learne how my selfe to sunder

Well, in absence this will dy; Leaue to see, and leaue to wonder. Absence sure will helpe, if I Can learne how my selfe to sunder
