

only one boy in the crowd

Tanita Tikaram

Does the heart keep beating?
Is this body mine?
Do the roads keep leading here?
Just want to find out why

Oh lord I keep on running
For there is so much to learn
And all I ask of experience
Is that my love will return

Does a woman scare you?
Are you scared to thrill?

When I feel his eyes upon me
I just want to know it's real

Oh lord I keep on burning
Nothing stays the same
I've been fool for experience
Well we share the dream again

There's only one boy in this crowd
There's only one boy in this world
There's only one boy in this crowd
There's only one boy in the world
